An admitted path completes the native scene

Two fresh replicas · 66 actions each · fixed controls from reset · inference bypassed

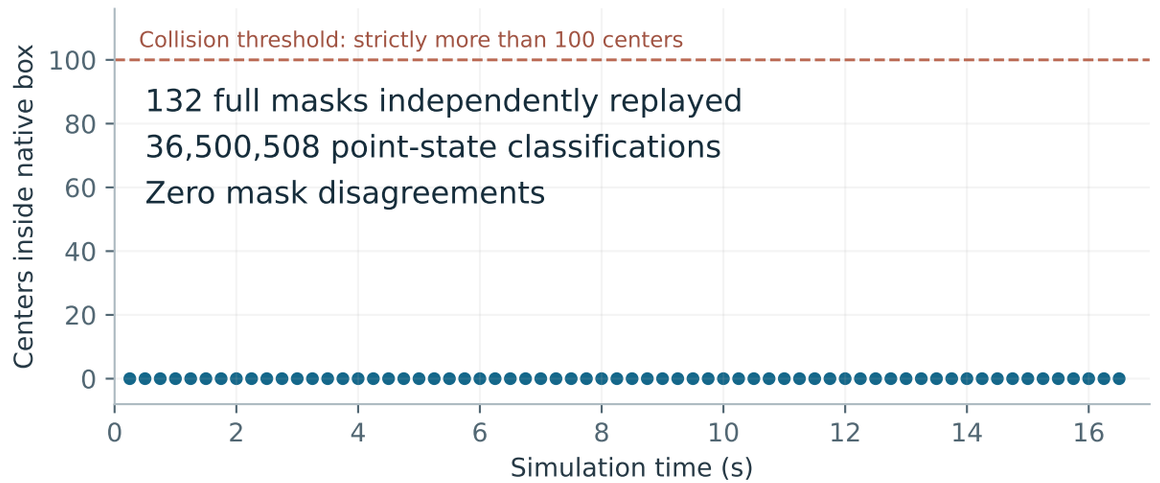

A | Executed motion in the retained scene

B | Completion and original checkpoints

C | Background checks at executed steps

One exposed scene. Historical policies are context, not a matched causal comparison. Projected centers do not certify road boundaries.

Native stopping uses the sampled-route rule. Monitor-time recovery, continuous background clearance and information benefit remain unproved.